Schedule II – Assets and “unearned” Income, Supplemental Information

HR Music Systems was a DBA under which I sold my personal services as a Software Architect, Electrical Engineer, Musician and Recording Engineer.

It has been inactive since 2008.

One of the aspects of this business was Curbside Recording, a mobile recording truck. The goal of this aspect of the business was to make Music, not money; so, it never really generated any profits – it was my way of contributing to the arts community.

I still retain some assets from this endeavor. Due to the partial collapse of the Music industry caused by on-line music sharing, these assets are for all intents and purposes not liquid; so, I have been hanging on to them and allowing friends to borrow them. These were professionally appraised for insurance purposes in 2003 and I updated the appraisal myself in 2010 using my gut feel for the market and eBay auction histories. The 2010 appraisal is $61,505.

If I get elected, I am aware I might need to divest of these assets. The plan would be to create a non-profit and donate the assets to it.
