CANDIDATE FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE EXTENSION REQUEST FORM

Candidates who are required to file a Financial Disclosure Statement (FD) under the Ethics in Government Act are permitted by federal law to request an extension of up to 90 days, but in no case to a date less than 30 days before an election in which they are a candidate. Filers may request an extension for their FD by filing this form on or before the applicable filing deadline. An FD filed under such an extension is not considered late. However, by law, an individual who files a report more than 30 days after it is due without having received an extension must pay a $200 late filing fee. Completed, signed extension request forms must be received by the Ethics Committee on or before the filing deadline. Extension requests may be delivered by E-MAIL to ethicscommittee@mail.house.gov; FAX to (202) 225-3713; or by MAIL or HAND to 508 Ford House Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20515. The Committee encourages you to E-MAIL or FAX your request if your filing deadline is within the next week to ensure it is received by the deadline.

Dear Mr. Tribble:

This responds to your letter of March 22, 2016, requesting a 90-day extension of time for filing the Financial Disclosure Statement required by the Ethics in Government Act.

Title I of EIGA requires candidates in any primary or general election for the U.S. House of Representatives to file a Financial Disclosure Statement with the Clerk of the House. The Statement must be filed by May 15 or within 30 days in the calendar year that the individual qualifies as a candidate under the Federal Election Campaign Act (FECA) (i.e., by raising or spending more than $5,000), whichever is later. In no event should it be filed later than 30 days before the election, unless qualification as a candidate occurs within that 30-day period. In that case, the due date for the Statement is the same as the date of qualification. A candidate must also file a new statement by May 15 of each subsequent year in which he or she continues to be a candidate.

EIGA authorizes this Committee to grant reasonable extensions of time for the filing of any Financial Disclosure Statement (including an amendment), the total of which may not exceed 90 days. However, an extension cannot be granted which authorizes a candidate's statement to be filed later than 30 days prior to a primary or general election in which the reporting individual is a candidate. As noted on the extension request form for candidates and in the financial disclosure instruction guide, extension requests must be received by the Committee on or before the applicable due date.

The primary election in Tennessee is scheduled for August 4, 2016. Accordingly, the Committee hereby grants you an extension of the filing due date from May 16, 2016, until July 5, 2016, which is 30 days prior to Tennessee's primary election.

The Committee staff is available to answer any questions relating to financial disclosure.

Sincerely,

Charles W. Dent
