Congressman Mike Conaway
Chairman, Ethics Committee
1015 Longworth HOB
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Chairman Conaway:

It has come to my attention that I have inadvertently omitted from my financial disclosure statements that my wife, Adrienne, owns 182 shares of Phillips 66. The shares were acquired in January 2004 as part of her inheritance. She also owns shares of Conoco Phillips and, as I don't own stocks or manage her account, I assumed they were one in the same and only listed Conoco Phillips.

Earlier today, after a conversation with my wife about the financial disclosure, it became apparent I was confused and, thus, had not been fully reporting her holdings.

Additionally, I reported the sale of Conoco Phillips shares on last year's disclosure but failed to note that it was a partial, not full, sale.

I would appreciate your assistance in making note of these errors and I apologize.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Albio Sires
Member of Congress
