October 17, 2016

The Honorable Karen Lehman Haas
Office of the Clerk
U.S. Capitol, Room H154
Washington, DC 20515-6601

Dear Ms. Haas,

Below are amendments and additional information for my 2015 financial disclosure.

Amendments and clarifications to Schedule B:

- Sp – VIRSys Corp Stock: This asset was written off due to the value being less than $1.
- Sp – Charles Schwab – Dell, Inc. Stock – this asset was tendered in October, 2013. I was not aware that I had to report it as a transaction because the company was taken private and all stock was liquidated, which was out of my control.
- Sp – Ares Capital Closed End Mutual Fund. Not reporting this was an oversight. The value is between $15,001 and $50,000.
- Sp – Charles Schwab – DWS Emerging Market Mutual Fund. Not reporting this asset was an oversight. The value of this asset is between $15,001 and $50,000. It generates between $2,501 and $5,000 in income.
- Sp – Charles Schwab –Graham Field Health PR stock. This asset was not reported because the value was less than $1.
- Sp – Charles Schwab –Healthsport, Inc. Stock. This asset was not reported because the value was less than $1.
- Sp – Charles Schwab – Mphase Technologies, Inc. Stock. This asset was not reported because the value was less than $1.
- Sp – Sterling Bank – Speier Family Partners. This was not reported because the account was closed in 2015.
- The DC assets are not reported because my children are now of adult age.

Amendment to Schedule H:

It was an oversight not reporting this approved travel to be interviewed by CNN for a documentary. The one way flight from SFO to LAX was $222.10 and transportation to the studio was $50. Travel to Palm Springs after the interview was $150.
