The Honorable Lorraine C. Miller
Clerk
U.S. House of Representatives
U.S. Capitol, Room H154
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Ms. Miller:

It has come to my attention that I have inadvertently omitted three assets, held in the names of my three children, on my Personal Financial Disclosure statements. The assets are state-run college savings plans for my children, which I understood previously to be assets owned only by my children.

According to recent conversations with the Committee on Standards regarding these assets, Schedule III should include the following assets:

- In Block A: Alabama Prepaid Affordable College Tuition Program (Child 1)
- In Block A: Alabama Prepaid Affordable College Tuition Program (Child 2)
- In Block A: Alabama Prepaid Affordable College Tuition Program (Child 3)
- All three assets should be marked DC, for Dependent Child.
- In Block B, Year-End Value of Asset, for all three assets, separately, should be marked Column C, $1,000-$15,000.
- In Block C, Type of Income, for all three assets, should be marked NONE.
- In Block D, Amount of Income, for all three assets, should be marked None.
- In Block E, Transactions, for all three assets, there were none.

Please contact me or my Chief of Staff, Marshall Macomber, if you need additional information.

Sincerely,

Mike Rogers
Member of Congress
