PLEASE NOTE*PLEASE NOTE: IMPORTANT SPOUSAL BENEFIT INFORMATION

The Internal Revenue Service recently ruled that same-sex couples, legally married in jurisdictions that recognize their marriages, will be treated as married for all federal tax purposes. The ruling implements federal tax aspects of the recent U.S. Supreme Court decision invalidating a key provision of the Defense of Marriage Act and applies to all federal tax provisions where marriage is a factor, including tax provisions related to annuity contracts. Contract holders in same-sex marriages should consult a tax advisor to determine how the ruling affects their spouse under their annuity contract.

Taxable distributions (including certain deemed distributions) are subject to ordinary income tax and, if made prior to age 59½, may also be subject to a 10% federal income tax penalty. Early surrender charges may also apply.

Continuous or periodic investment plans neither ensure a profit nor protect against a loss in declining markets. Because these programs involve continuous investing regardless of fluctuating price levels, you should carefully consider your financial ability to continue investing through periods of fluctuating market prices.

Investing in a variable annuity through a tax-advantaged retirement plan such as an IRA provides no additional tax advantage from the variable annuity and should only be considered if it makes sense because of the annuity's other features, such as lifetime income payments or death benefit protection.

Neither we, or any third party service provider, nor any of the respective affiliates, is acting as an investment advisor or fiduciary under the Investment Advisor's Act, The Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (ERISA), or the Internal Revenue code.
