Dear Honorable Karen Haas:

Please accept this letter as an addendum to my 2013 Financial Disclosure Statement. In way of background, I received a letter from the Committee on Ethics on July 30, 2014 which did not include a checklist enclosure. My office contacted Heather Jones from the Ethics Committee regarding the missing checklist. She was able to clarify which information the Ethics Committee had requested. However, I was unable to ascertain some of the missing information prior to my departure for Ohio. Upon request for additional time, Ms. Jones informed my staff that there was no firm deadline, nor a need to send an immediate response. It is my understanding that Heather Jones is no longer employed by the Ethics Committee. I apologize for any inconvenience this delayed response may cause.

Pages 10 and 11 of my 2013 Financial Disclosure Statement include several transactions dated 2014. Those dates are accurate, occurring in the year 2014. As it relates to the security iShares Euro ETF, I acquired 229 shares of iShares Euro ETF on Sept. 24, 2012, as reported in my 2012 Financial Disclosure Statement. Those shares were not sold. However, I acquired an additional 189 shares of iShares Euro ETF on January 22, 2014, thereby generating a value between $15,001 - $50,000. Lastly, my shares of Phillip Morris were sold on April 18, 2014 for a value within the $1,000 - $15,000 range. Please do not hesitate to contact me with any further questions.

Sincerely,

David P. Joyce
