Dear Ms. Miller:

With regard to my financial disclosure filing for 2008 (calendar year 2007), I have been advised by the Committee on Standards that two matters listed on Schedule III Assets and "Unearned" Income need further explanation.

The first involves the sale of bonds. Of the nine bonds that were sold, each should have a year-end value (Block B) of zero. The second matter involves the two notes receivable on personal residences. The Houston County note is to Charles Williams in Dothan, Alabama and the Coffee County note is to Lawrence Phipps in Enterprise, Alabama. The year-end value (Block B) is value D for each, and the amount of income (Block D) is value IV for each.

Sincerely,

TERRY EVERETT
