Chairman, House Committee on Ethics
1015 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Chairman Conaway:

In response to your inquiry into my 2012 Financial Disclosure, I would like to submit the following information to address the Committee's remaining questions.

- 1) Two accounts for Inland were reported in 2011 and only one for 2012 in section III. After reconciling both reports, I noticed that in 2011 an account for Inland America (value $100,001-$250,000) was listed, as well as an account for Inland Western (value $15,001-$50,000). In 2012, section III, Inland America was listed as $50,001-$100,000. Inland Western was listed directly below the prior with an account value of "none", and was marked with an "S" to report that it had been sold in 2012.
- 2) In section IV of the 2012 report the dates of three transactions were listed as "various". Please find the three transactions listed below with the corresponding dates:
  - a. ING American Funds Growth – Sale – Date: July 20, 2012
  - b. ING Large Cap Growth Fund – Purchase – Date: July 20, 2012
  - c. Inland Western REIT – Sale – Date: June 6, 2012
  - d. Inland Western REIT – Sale – Date: December 5, 2012

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Jon Runyan
Member of Congress
