I am writing this letter to clarify two items on my 2009 personal Financial Disclosure statement. The report listed the sale of a property for which my portion of the proceeds was $17,500. This $17,500 capital gain sale should have been reflected on Schedule III, but was inadvertently excluded.

My wife, Imelda, has worked for the State of Texas for many years. Her Texas Retirement account balance was reflected on the 2009 Financial Disclosure statement, but was inadvertently omitted in previous statements. Accordingly, this information will be reported on all future Financial Disclosure statements.

Please accept this letter as a correction to those oversights. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Henry Cuellar, Ph.D.
