To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to clarify an unintentional oversight on my prior Financial Disclosure Forms. Prior to serving in Congress, I owned real property in Sacramento, California, that I subsequently maintained as a rental property after being elected to Congress. Although this property was included in the "Liabilities" section of my annual Financial Disclosures since my first report in 2012, it was mistakenly not included in the "Assets" Section A of the disclosures. In 2015, I sold the property and included it on my disclosure where it was flagged as an asset previously unreported.

I respectfully request that all prior disclosure reports for the 2011-2015 reporting periods reflect this property so that it is listed in Section A of the reports as an asset. If you have any questions or need more information, please feel free to contact my Chief of Staff Carrie Kohns at 202-225-7084 or via email at carrie.kohns@mail.house.gov.

Sincerely,
