OFFICE OF THE CLERK
U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Dear Madam Clerk:

I am writing in response to the letter dated November 20, 2012 requesting some additional information regarding my 2012 candidate Financial Disclosure Statement.

Following is the additional information requested:

Schedule II:

I am providing additional information regarding the real estate assets indicated in the Disclosure. The letter requested the location of the real estate asset as well as a breakdown of value and income based on each individual property held.

- Brooks Koch & Sorg, LLC – Asset is a building in Indianapolis, IN. The value and income are the same as indicated in the original filing.
- O'Day Farmbrook, Inc. – Asset is a warehousing facility in Arlington, TX. The value and income are the same as indicated in the original filing.
- Patterson PK Land Partnership, Ltd. – Asset is located in Possum Kingdom, TX. Based on a conversation with the Ethics Committee, we are outlining the nature of this property rather than individual assets since this seems the correct way of describing the property. The asset is a large area of land around Possum Kingdom, TX. Such property is being broken off into separate parcels as they are being sold. Therefore, it is a single asset that is being divided upon sale. The sales of the parcels are reflected in the income indicated on the Financial Disclosure Form. The value and income of the property is the same as indicated in the original filing.
- Arlington Warehouse Investors II, Ltd. – Asset is a warehouse in Arlington, TX. The value and income are the same as indicated in the original filing.
- Mansfield Warehouse Investors I, Ltd. – Asset is a warehouse in Mansfield, TX. The value and income are the same as indicated in the original filing.
- Castle Creek Investors, LLC – Assets are two buildings. Building 1 is in Indianapolis, IN, which is valued between $15,001 - $50,000 with income between $201 - $1,000 in the current year and $1,001 - $2,500 in the preceding year. Building 2 is also in Indianapolis, IN, which is valued between $15,001 - $50,000 with income between $201 - $1,000 in the current year and $1,001 - $2,500 in the preceding year.
- T. O. Harris investors, LLC – Does not have any assets at this time. The value is the same as indicated in the original filing. There is no income.

During this review, I discovered that I inadvertently left an asset out of my original Financial Disclosure Statement.

- O'Day Landman, LLC – Asset is mineral rights to land in Arlington, TX. The value of the rights is $100,001 - $250,000 with no income.

Schedule III

I inadvertently indicated, under question III in the Preliminary Information Section of my original filing, that I had a reportable liability during the reporting period. I did not, in fact, have any reportable liabilities.

Please accept this letter as an amendment to my 2012 candidate Financial Disclosure Statement. If you have any further questions, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Susan W. Brooks
